

Favorite Restaurants:

Saigon Garden
TK Wu

Favorite Movies:

Shawshank Redemption
Lord of the Rings

Favorite Songs:

Bizarre Love Triangle (New Order)
Brown-Eyed Girl (Van Morrison)

Favorite Worship Songs:

El Shaddai
I Want to Love You More

Favorite verses from the bible:

Psalm 73:25-26

Top 3 hobbies:

1. Perusing through cookbooks or cooking magazines
2. Running/Walking outdoors
3. Reading for pleasure

Greatest Wish/Dream:

To win a shopping spree in New York
To own an Alaskan Husky but not have to take it outside to go to the bathroom

What makes you cry:

When I pray for my students
When I think about not living near my parents =(

Most interesting thing about you:

I like eating Korean food for breakfast--yuummm!

How did you become a Christ-follower?

The start of being a committed Christ-follower began my freshman year. Before then, Christianity was just a weekly routine. My freshmen year I finally understood what it meant to lay down everything for Christ and grasped how deep and wide His is for me.

What were you like in high school?

Umm...do I have to tell you? (If I must, I was a jock, but a nerdy jock. I partied, but I was the most responsible partier. I skipped Sunday school often, but my parents never found out!)

Where did you attend college and what did you study?

I attended the University of Michigan, and I was pre-Med and a Spanish major.

If you did not know Christ, where do you think you will be?

I would be in the Peace Corps in Asia or South America.

Most embarrassing moment:

When P. Seth put me on the spot and asked me to tell everyone at ACCESS why I was attracted to P. Andrew.

Who was the biggest role model in your life?

My mom. She's not perfect, but she taught me so many things about life (it's kind of scary how similar I am to her). She has taught me things like: making food look pretty before eating it, being silly with little kids, and laughing freely (and loudly!). She's also taught me things like: giving my best in whatever I do, sacrificing for others (especially for family), and giving your time and energy to the local church.

Any regrets from your college years?

I wish I were a linguistics major!

What was a life transforming moment after you became a follower of Christ?

I was on a boat on the Ucayali River in Peru when God challenged me to surrender things that I held dearest to me. It was then that I made a commitment to Jesus that I would surrender my all and go wherever he took me to be a witness for His glory.

What is the most important lesson you've learned about your faith?

I've learned that when Jesus called me to be His disciple, an important part of this call was the surrendering of my life to Him. And it seems to be a constant re-surrendering of things over the past eleven years, and although it's hard at times, I know that there's no greater call than this.

Where would you like to see yourself in 10 years?

I see us still happily married with several kids in a place overseas and seeing God do great things like He's been doing here in Ann Arbor.

Prayer requests:

- 1) Teach with a big love for my students
- 2) Have the strength and good time management to balance work and grad school
- 3) Fall in love with Jesus more every day