

Favorite Food:

- Japanese
- Steak

Favorite Movies:

- The Good, the Bad and the Ugly
- Blade Runner

Favorite Worship Song:

- There is a Redeemer by Keith Green

Favorite Book in Bible:

- Romans

Top 3 hobbies:

- Mountain biking
- Reading while listening to music
- Hanging out with Susan and Isaiah

Greatest Wish/Dream:

- Drive an Enzo Ferrari
- Submit Fedor Emelianenko with a sweet rear naked choke

What makes you cry:

- Chopping onions

Most interesting thing about you:

-I rub my feet together when I'm about to fall asleep – I'm not sure why, but I do that from time to time.

If you could be anyone for one day, you would be...

- A Formula 1 race driver

How did you become a Christ-follower?

- It was during a youth group retreat at the end of my freshmen year in high school. My youth pastor locked us up in a room and made us watch a 70's movie called A Thief in the Night. It was this lame movie about the second coming of Christ and the end times. Yet, it scared the living daylights out of all of us. When the movie was over, our youth pastor presented the gospel message, and we all received Jesus that night.

What were you like in high school?

- I think I was a normal high school kid. I played school sports, hung out with my friends, went to parties, and tried my best to have a good time by doing dumb things with my friends. And of course, my parents made sure that I kept up with my studies. I wasn't really close with the youth group kids from church, so I hung out mostly with my high school friends.

Where did you attend college and what did you study?

- I graduated from Washington University in St. Louis with a BA in Biology

Craziest thing you ever did:

- The craziest thing I ever did was to become a dad. That's crazy.

Which biography impacted you the most?

- Biography of William Carey. His life and faith is incredibly inspiring and motivating.

Any regrets from your college years?

- My biggest regret from college is moving off campus my senior year. Bunch of us decided to move off campus to enjoy our last year in college while one of my friends decided to stay on campus because he wanted to invest in the younger guys from our Christian fellowship.

What is the most important lesson you've learned about your faith?

- The most important thing lesson that I have learned is that my faith is not only for myself, but it also needs to be shared with the people around me

Prayer requests:

- 1) To grow deeper in my love for God and for His people
- 2) To develop a greater sensitivity to the Holy Spirit
- 3) To become an awesome husband and dad for my family